600 Businesswomen Inspired While Lunching With Leader, Anna Griffin

Griffin Invited to Speak at Country Living's Women Entrepreneurs: A Celebration of Creativity Event

Atlanta, GA March 2008 – Anna Griffin captivated 600 businesswomen on March 15, 2008 at the third annual “Country Living Women Entrepreneurs: A Celebration of Creativity” event at the Renaissance Hotel in Chicago. In her one-on-one interview with Editor-in-Chief Nancy Soriano, Anna kept the sold-out audience hanging on her every word. They laughed and related to the always-gracious Anna Griffin giving insight on her journey to the top. Attendees jotted notes on the elegant black and white damask portable pads that were waiting for them at their chairs, compliments Anna’s company. “It was truly a career defining moment to have such a profound acknowledgement for the work that I have done,” said Anna Griffin, President of Anna Griffin Incorporated. “The energy that radiated from these creative women looking to me for guidance was inspiring and empowering.”

Anna follows many other powerful women who have been given the honor to speak at this event, including Barbara Baekgaard, co-founder of Vera Bradley. “It was such an honor to be chosen from such an amazing group of creative talents,” said Griffin. “I have no regrets on the path that I have taken and moments like these only reaffirm that.”

The event showcased leading women entrepreneurs who have turned their passions into successful businesses. During this half-day event, attendees were informed and entertained through panel discussions and speakers.

“Country Living is all about living a creative life,” says Nancy Soriano, Editor-in-Chief of Country Living Magazine. “In every issue we recognize women who have followed their dreams to create unique and successful business endeavors. This event gives us the opportunity to share those stories beyond the pages of the magazine and to inspire and motivate others to look at how they might make their own personal passions profitable.”

Anna Griffin Inc. made her mark in the wedding industry over a decade ago by developing one of the industry’s first ‘print it yourself’ invitations with a custom look.
